established on 25 April 1964 following the appointment of the country&#39;s first t&#128183; national football team manager Henri Gu&#233;rin. Before this, the France national football team was selected by a selection committee, a&#128183; process in which the French Football Federation would select coaches and trainers from within the country or abroad to prepare&#128183; the side for single games and tournaments, but with all decisions ultimately remaining under the control of the committee. From&#128183; 1904 1913, the USFSA headed the committee, which was referred to as the Commission Centrale d&#39;Association. The committee was controlled by&#128183; Andr&#233; Espir and Andr&#233; Billy and featured little to no physical preparation for upcoming matches. In 1913, the Comit&#233; Fran&#231; ais&#128183; Interf&#233;d&#233;ral, a precursor to the French Football Federation, took over the committee following the USFSA becoming affiliated with the organization&#128183; and secretary general Henri Delaunay took control.&lt;/p&gt; &lt;p&gt;Following the creation of the French Football Federation, the committee was converted into a&#128183; five-man board and lasted from 1919 1964. Gaston Barreau served as the head of the committee in two different stints; from&#128183; 1920 1945, then, after four years, returned to select the team from 1949 until his death in 1958. From 1945 1949, Gabriel&#128183; Hanot headed the committee and, following Barreau&#39;s death, Paul Nicolas (1958 1959) and Georges Verriest (1959 1964) controlled the committee until it&#128183; was officially disbanded in 1964.&lt;/p&gt; &lt;p&gt;Fifteen men have occupied the post since its inception; three of those were in short-term caretaker&#128183; manager roles: Jos&#233; Arribas and Jean Snella managed the team in dual roles and presided over four matches and former&#128183; France international Just Fontaine managed the team for two matches in 1967. The longest tenure by a France national team&#128183; manager is current manager Didier Deschamps, who has managed the team since 8 July 2012. Four managers
