professional team was dissolved, but its junior teams continue to compete in cit y competitions.[citation needed] The club claims to be a successor of Kyiv Arsen al factory team which traces its history back to 1925. The original factory team used to compete in the Soviet Class B (later reorganized as Soviet Second Leagu) Tj T* BT /

<p&gt;The football club of the Ukrainian post-Soviet period was created in 19 93 and brought to Kyiv from Boryspil by a geological company Geoton which was on e of main sponsors of the Football Federation of Ukraine and Ukraine national fo otball team in the beginning. In 1995 2001 through a merger, the club was recons tituted by the Ministry of Defense as a separate government enterprise[5] not pa rt of the Central Sports Club of the Armed Forces of Ukraine. During that period 2001) it competed in the Ukrainian Top League under CSKA Kyiv brand as it s senior (main) squad, while the original army squad continued to compete in low er leagues. In 1995 it was relocated to Kyiv playing at CSK ZSU Stadium and carr ied such names CSKA-Borysfen and CSKA, while the original FC CSKA Kyiv competing in lower leagues changed its name to CSKA-2 as its reserve squad.[6] Due to dif ficulty of financing, the ownership of senior squad was transferred to the Kyiv city authorities during the winter break of 2001 02 as part of Oleksandr Omelche nko political project and the newly acquired squad was renamed as Arsenal[7] in memory of the factory team.</p&gt;

<p&gt;Between 2002 and 2008, Arsenal was a municipal club of Kyiv city and pl ayed its games at the Olympiyskiy National Sports Complex. Later when the club w as sold to the Ukrainian politician Vadym Rabinovych who promised to build own s tadium for the club within the Kyiv city limits, but instead came up with a camp aign to revive the history of another Arsenal Kyiv, a factory team of Kyiv Arsen al, which was dissolved in 1960s and consider the current Arsenal Kyiv a phoenix club of its predecessor. In 2013 soon after Rabinovych sold the club to another

Ukrainian politician it was abandoned and dissolved.&It;/p> &It;p>Due to the efforts of Ukrainian racer Oleksiy Kikireshko, the club was revived in 2014 as Arsenal-Kyiv and based in Shchaslyve[8] located right on east
