likely to happen. In contrast, the term low odds means an outcome that is more likely to occur than it appears to be. In the case of a roulette spin, the odds of a particular number or color winning are determined by the layout of the roulette wheel. For example, in American roulette, there are 38 pockets (numbers 1 through 36, plus 0 and 00). The odds of a specific number winning are 1 in 38. The odds of a specific color winning are 18 in 38 (approximately 47%).
